3. When they did it;
4. Where it happened; and
5. Why they did it, if you know.

On November 15th 2020 I Tristan Fiscus was stopped by Lebanon Police officer Nicholas Reynolds on Indiana state road 65. I asked why I was stopped and he did not reply. I gave him my information and I called my girlfriend at the time to tell her I probably wouldn't make it to dinner. Officer Reynolds returned to my truck and stated that I had pissed him off and to get out of the truck.
I exited my truck and was slammed against my truck
door and cuffed while being cursed at.

I was placed in the LPD cruiser with the heat on high and no windows. While being transported officer Reynolds radioed dispatch. Upon arriving in Boone County jail I was surrounded by officers pulled from the car and placed in a restraint chair. I was taken in given a PBT Test searched and stripped down. I was given a jail uniform and given a phone call, I was fed and put back into the restraint chair where I went into an anxiety attack. Sgt. Brennan and officer Ford entered into the room then Sgt. Brennan applied pressure to my neck/arteries putting me into a seizure. The nurse came in and applied smelling salts to wake me up. Then I was given a shot of Valium and placed in the body WRAP for a while. A day later I posted Bond and went home. All events were recorded on jail cameras and body worn cameras.
